Motivating Struggling Readers through integrating phonics, fluency, comprehension and authentic text

Co-Sponsored By Carla Nieman, Publishers' Representative
Booksource Will Provide 4 Gift Certificates Worth $50 Each for Raffle

When: Tuesday, July 7th, 2009

Times: 3:00 PM to 6:30 PM

Where: Monsanto Auditorium-Library

Please arrive at 2:30 PM for refreshments and registration.

Timothy Rasinski is a professor of literacy education at Kent State University. He has written over 150 articles and has authored, co-authored or edited over 15 books or curriculum programs on reading education. His scholarly interests include reading fluency and word study, reading in the elementary and middle grades, and readers who struggle.

Who should attend? This advanced workshop is designed for elementary, middle school and high school teachers who encounter struggling readers. We encourage attendance by teams of teachers from a district or school. Teams might include regular classroom teachers, special education teachers, ELL teachers, literacy coaches and administrators. Teachers who have heard Dr. Rasinski before will have the opportunity to explore reading strategies in greater depth.

Space is limited. Register early! RSVP by May 1st, 2009.
