

The Maryville University
Speech and Language
Clinic, staffed by student clinicians, provides a full range of diagnostic and clinical services to children and adults at no cost to individual clients.

MARYVILLE UNIVERSITY SPEECH AND LANGUAGE CLINIC

The Maryville University Speech and Language Clinic provides services in state-of-the-art clinic rooms located on campus in the newly constructed Walker Hall. Student clinicians in Maryville's Communication Sciences and Disorders/Speech Language Pathology Program provide speech, language, voice, swallowing, hearing screenings, and treatment services. Student clinicians work under the direct supervision of faculty who are fully licensed by the State of Missouri and certified by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA).

REFERRALS

Referrals to the Maryville University Speech and Language Clinic can be made by audiologists, speech-language-pathologists, educators, physicians, or through self-referrals. Appointments are required; no walk-in services are available.
