

Web Sites to use in the Job Search process

AllJobSearch.com

<http://www.alljobsearch.com>

Provides a unique job search that enables job seekers to search a large number of job sites at once. This search also allows job seekers to narrow their search using advanced search criteria. This site also pulls in results from newspaper classifieds and Internet newsgroups

America's Job Bank

<http://www.ajb.dni.us>

Nationwide job search database, allowing job seekers to post resumes and locate job openings.

America's Career InfoNet

<http://www.acinet.org>

Nationwide statistics on employment trends, occupational and industry information and salary information at the National, State, Metropolitan and County levels.

Best Jobs in the USA Today

<http://www.bestjobsusa.com>

Employment ads and resume postings from USA Today and Employment Review.

Business Week Online Career Center

<http://www.businessweek.com/careers/index.htm>

Search jobs, use the personal search agent, and read articles from Business Week on careers and the job market.

Career.com

www.career.com

An interactive recruitment advertising site focused on connecting qualified job seekers with employers in the high-tech fields.

Career Builder

<http://www.careerbuilder.com>

Includes in depth company profiles, including information on products and services available.

Career Central

<http://www.careercentral.com>

Connects to several sponsored links for careers.

CareerExchange

<http://www.careerexchange.com>

Allows job seekers to apply for positions online.

Career Exposure

<http://www.careerexposure.com>

Access to corporate homepages. Search for jobs by 10 major industry categories and 60 sub-categories, career news, advice and much more.

Career Journal—The Wall Street Journal executive career site

<http://www.careerjournal.com>

Salary and hiring information, job hunting advice, discussions from recruiters.

CareerMagazine

<http://www.careermag.com>

Articles of interest to job seekers. Job listings and resume posting in areas of Programming, Engineering, Sales, and Business. The job listings are updated daily. Employer data, links to other sites, college data, and tools to help build a portfolio are available.

Careernet

<http://www.careernet.com>

Job seekers discover career opportunities, job postings, internships, and job search strategies.

Career Resource Center

<http://www.careers.org>

A directory of over 7000 links to jobs, job search preparation, education, personal business and more, sorted by topic and region.

CareerShop.com

<http://www.careershop.com>

Offers services and tools to assist with an online job search, including job postings, a place to upload resumes, and job fair information.

College Grad Job Hunter

<http://www.collegegrad.com>

Career information, job search advice, resumes, cover letters, job postings, interview preparation and salary information.

Employmentguide.com

<http://www.employmentguide.com>

Allows the jobseeker to search jobs, apply online, post a resume and attain career advice.

Employment 911

<http://www.employment911.com>

Search jobs on over 35 job sites. Free email, web address book & organizer, resume posting, job posting and employment tips.

Employment Spot

<http://www.employmentspot.com>

Find a job, post a job, search by location or vocation and much more.

Employment & Training Administration, Department of Labor

<http://www.doleta.gov>

This Department of Labor site has up to date information on job search, making career changes and unemployment benefits information. Also links to America's Talent Bank and lists states currently online; this new program permits you to put your resume online.

FutureStep

<http://www.futurestep.com>

Provides customized recruitment solutions to employers and offers candidates access to exclusive job opportunities around the world.

GetAJob

<http://www.getajob.com>

Free job tips. Searches job postings for you and emails you with the results.

Grad Staff

<http://www.gradstaff.com>

Helping college graduates secure entry level or early stage professional positions. Local St. Louis office: [hires@gradstaff.com](mailto: hires@gradstaff.com)

HelpWanted.com

<http://www.helpwanted.com>

One of the Internet's first employment sites.

Hoover's Online

<http://www.hoovers.com>

Search for specific companies, view industry directories and locate key decision makers.

Hotjobs.com

<http://www.hotjobs.com>

This site lists top jobs in companies around the world and provides a place to post resumes.

IM Diversity

<http://www.imdiversity.com>

Where careers, opportunities and diversity connect. Post resumes, search for jobs and read profiles of employers with sensitivity to diversity.

Indeed.com

<http://www.indeed.com/>

Search for jobs in every field across the nation.

JobBank USA

<http://www.jobbankusa.com>

This site specializes in providing employment and resume information services to job candidates, employers, and recruiters.

JobExchange

<http://www.jobexchange.com>

Maintains resume posting and a job search area.

JobHunt

<http://www.job-hunt.org>

Listing of thousands of on-line job hunting resources by category.

JobHunters Bible.com from Richard Bolles

<http://www.jobhuntersbible.com>

Richard Bolles, the author of "What Color is Your Parachute," oversees this site. He includes links on jobs, resumes, research and counseling.

Job Star

<http://www.jobstar.org>

Offers information on career services/resume assistance, salary information as well as job search by state or nationwide.

Job Web

<http://www.jobweb.com>

The online complement to Job Choices, featuring career development and job-search advice for new college graduate.

Jobs.Com

<http://www.jobs.com>

Search jobs by state or position. Learn about upcoming career fairs, employer lists, resume banks and other job seeker resources.

Missouri Works!

<http://www.greathires.org>

State and local job search database, allowing job seekers to post resumes where they may be seen by over 10,000 registered Missouri businesses.

Monster

<http://www.monster.com>

Search for jobs, post your resume and gain valuable career advice.

MonsterTRAK

<http://www.monstertrak.monster.com>

Search thousand of internships and entry level jobs at MonsterTRAK! This is the #1 resource to college students finding their first job.

NationJob Network

<http://www.nationjob.com/>

Job search engine, careers, employment, and resume services for job seekers. Find a job anywhere in the USA.

News Link

<http://newslink.org>

This site allows users to access the online classifieds of nearly every newspaper in the United States and abroad.

NowHiring.com

<http://www.nowhiring.com>

Offers one convenient source for career information, including personalized search agents, automatic matching of jobs against your resume, and expert advice on all aspects of your job hunt.

Occupational Outlook Handbook

<http://www.bls.gov/oco>

Learn the training or education needed, earnings, expected job prospect, working conditions and more for hundreds of different types of occupations.

O'Net

<http://onlineonetcenter.org>

Online database that contains characteristics of 1166 occupations.

Professional Careers Network

<http://www.jobs-careers.com>

Job Search; Career Development; Writing A Resume; Online University. Jobs; Part Time Jobs; Resume Writer; Career Education and separates jobs and careers by industry specific specialization.

Quintessential Careers

<http://www.quintcareers.com>

A leader in career and job search advice. Subscribe to free E-zine.

Riley Guide

<http://www.rileyguide.com>

A summary of the best online job search sites.

Science Careers

<http://sciencecareers.sciencemag.org/>

From the Journal of Science, can search jobs in science based on discipline and region.

Suburban Newspapers of America

<http://www.suburban-news.org>

Has links to community newspapers all over the US and their classifieds

The Vault

<http://www.thevault.com>

The Most Trusted Name in Career Information. Get insider information on top employers and education programs, job search advice, salary info and more.

TopJobs

<http://www.topjobsusa.com>

Search jobs from specialized job search engines. Find your ideal career. Jobs updated daily.

True Careers

<http://www.truecareers.com>

This site includes the ability to search for jobs, listing of hiring companies, resume uploads, and career resources.

USAJOBS

<http://www.USAJOBS.gov>

The United States government's clearinghouse for federal job spanning the globe.

Weddle's

<http://www.weddles.com>

Among other resources, Weddle's contains an online directory of associations covering a broad range of industries. Use to make connections with individuals in your career.

Wetfeet

<http://www.wetfeet.com>

Research careers, company profiles, search for jobs, write better resumes and prepare for interviews.

World Wide Web Employment Office

<http://www.employmentoffice.net>

Job candidates can search by occupation rather than industry.

6Figure Jobs

<http://www.6figurejobs.com>

Company profiles, relocation tools, executive library, market place, resume posting and critique and job search for careers that earn over $100,000 annually.

50 States

<http://www.50states.com>

Links to all 50 states and their capitals; all commonwealth and U.S. territories. You will find a newspaper directory linking you to all local classified ads for employment; along with other useful community information.

As of 1/2011