Au Pair Class Auditing:

The class audit option allows a student to register and attend select courses without having to complete the course assignments. The student does not receive a grade or credit for the course, but it does appear on the student's official transcript as an audit (AU). Courses taken on an audit basis do not meet degree requirements. Students interested in auditing classes must fill out and submit a "Non-Degree Student Application" as well as a photocopy of their passport.

Audit Fee:

$250 per course (all courses between 1-4 credit hours). Requisite fees apply on a per course basis.

Class Restrictions:

Certain classes will be unavailable for auditing. These classes may include, but are not limited to: science labs, art (both digital and studio), and computer science. To view the class schedule for Maryville, please visit <https://selfservice.maryville.edu/Student/Courses>.

Registration Timeline:

Non-degree students who audit classes at Maryville are allowed to register in early December for the spring semester and mid-June for the fall semester.
