Graduates with honor society affiliations wear the appropriate cords or designations of the individual group as part of the academic regalia.

GONFALONS

Signaling the presence of the academic units of Maryville University are gonfalons, flags with color emblematic of each school. At Maryville, the gonfalon of the College of Arts and Sciences is bordered in white and yellow gold; the Myrtle E. and Earl E. Walker College of Health Professions is sage green; John E. Simon School of Business in drab; and the School of Education in blue. The Gonfalons are carried by a faculty member from each school.

THE MACE

The Mace had its origins as a warrior's weapon and later evolved into a symbol of authority. The Maryville Mace connects the University to the long tradition of universities from their founding in the Middle Ages into the future. The oak leaves were collected from trees on campus and were painted pure silver. The shaft, which symbolizes a tree trunk, is treated with a Japanese smoked patina. The Mace celebrates the history and the rich diversity that is life and is carried by the Grand Marshal.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

J.C. WATTS

Visionary Conservative Leader

A visionary conservative leader, J.C. Watts offers thought provoking views on the future of healthcare, the economy, education and other major issues of the day.

From football hero to his remarkable eight years as one of the most recognizable members of Congress, J.C. Watts is an embodiment of the American dream. An outstanding quarterback who led the University of Oklahoma to two Orange Bowl victories and later committed himself to helping his community as an ordained minister, Watts is admired by many for his integrity and strong leadership. Elected to Congress from his native Oklahoma, fellow congressmen quickly recognized Watts' leadership qualities and elected him to serve as the chairman of the House Republican Conference, the fourth-highest position in the House. He was honorary co-chairman of the 2000 Republican National Convention and is a passionate voice for boosting national security, adhering to fiscal discipline and investing in education. He is the author of What Color Is Conservative? My Life and My Politics and Dig Deep: 7 Truths to Finding the Strength Within.
