

Public Announcement of the NCATE Review

The School of Education at Maryville University is scheduled for a fall 2015 reaccreditation review by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), formerly known as the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Federal regulations require that accrediting agencies allow for public comment on the qualifications of institutions or programs under consideration for initial or continuing accreditation.

Both CAEP and Maryville University recognize that graduates, parents, schools and community organizations have valuable perspectives on the quality of the programs that prepare teachers and other school personnel. We invite interested parties to submit written testimony on the School of Education to:

Site Visitors
CAEP
2010 Massachusetts Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20036-1023
or by email to:
callforcomments@ncate.org

Comments must address substantive matters related to the quality of professional education programs offered by the School of Education, Maryville University, and should specify the respondent's relationship, if any, to the institution (i.e., graduate, present or former faculty member, employer of graduates). Copies of all correspondence received will be sent to the Maryville University School of Education for comment prior to the review. No anonymous or oral testimony will be considered.

Letter of comment should be received by Friday, June 1, 2015.
