Maryville University - Scott AFB

2020 ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT

Introduction

This report is provided in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act, as amended. It provides students and employees of Maryville University of Saint Louis ("University") with information on: the University's security arrangements, policies and procedures; programs that provide education on such things as drug and alcohol abuse, awareness of various kinds of sex offenses, and the prevention of crime generally; and procedures the University will take to notify the campus community in the event of an emergency. Its purpose is to provide students and employees with information that will help them make informed decisions relating to their own safety and the safety of others.

Policy for Preparing the Annual Report

This report is prepared by the Director of Public Safety in cooperation with local law enforcement authorities and includes information provided by them as well as by the University's campus security authorities and various other elements of the University. Each year an e-mail notification is made to all enrolled students and employees that provides the website link to access this report. Prospective students and employees are also notified of the report's availability. Hard copies of the report may also be obtained at no cost by contacting Department of Public Safety, 650 Maryville University Dr., Saint Louis, MO 63141. The University is committed to taking the actions necessary to provide a safe and secure working/learning environment for all students and staff. As a member of the campus community, you can feel safe and comfortable knowing that security procedures are in place that represent best practices in the field and are constantly tested and re-evaluated for their effectiveness.

General Safety and Security Policies

Campus Security Personnel & Relationship with Local Law Enforcement

The Maryville University Scott AFB campus does not have a campus security or police department.

This campus is under the jurisdiction of the base military police department for public safety and law enforcement services. For assistance see the "Reporting a Crime or Emergency" section below.

The University does not have any written "memorandum of understanding" (MOU) agreements with local and state law enforcement agencies for response to or investigation of crimes, we maintain a strong working relationship with the Scott Air Force Base Military Police Department as well as the local federal authorities.

Campus Security Authorities

The University has designated certain officials to serve as campus security authorities. Reports of criminal activity can be made to these officials. They in turn will ensure that the crimes are reported for collection as part of the University's annual report of crime statistics. The campus security authorities to whom the University would prefer that crimes be reported are listed below.

Department of Public Safety at 314-529-9500
Title IX Coordinator at 314-529-9981
Dean of Students at 314-529-9476
Residential Life Director at 314-529-9362
Athletic Director at 314-529-9288
Health & Wellness Staff at 314-529-9520
Director of Student Involvement at 314-529-9388
Assistant Dean of Diversity and Inclusion at 314-529-9434
Director of Academic Success at 314-529-6303

Reporting a Crime or Emergency

The University encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all criminal actions, emergencies, or other incidents occurring on campus, on other property owned by the University, or on nearby public property to the appropriate administrator and appropriate police agencies. Such a report is encouraged even when the victim of a crime elects not to make a report or is unable to do so.

To help provide a safe and secure environment, all members of the Maryville University-Scott AFB community, including visitors, are requested and encouraged to report any criminal activity or emergency they observe. Reporting criminal activity or other threatening situations may be accomplished by contacting the military police department directly at 618.256.2223. In the event of an emergency requiring police, fire or medical, please call 911 from a base telephone.

Crimes and suspicious activities can also be reported to one of the University administrators listed above.

All criminal and policy violation reports are forwarded to the office of Student Life for review for potential conduct action. By promptly reporting crimes, it will ensure inclusion in the annual crime statistics and will aid in providing timely warning notices to the community when appropriate.

Confidential Reporting

The University will protect the confidentiality of victims. Only those with a need to know the identity for purposes of investigating the crime, assisting the victim or disciplining the perpetrator will know the victim's identity.

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the university system or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. With your permission, the director of public safety or a designee of Maryville can file a report on the details of the incident without revealing your identity, except in cases of sexual violence in which we are required to report the information to the Title IX coordinator. The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the university can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine where there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crimes statistics for the institution.

The University encourages its professional counselors, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform the person they are counseling to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual report of crime statistics.

Security of and Access to Campus Facilities

The university encourages an open environment with limited constraints to ensure reasonable protection of all members of the community. The academic and administrative building is open, at a minimum, during normal business hours but the Military Police Force restricts who can enter onto the Air force Base at any given time. This facility has individual hours, and the hours may vary at different times of the year based on the academic class schedule. Access to the building is controlled by key access after normal business hours, and all of these buildings have varied levels of access. The academic and administrative building does not have a public safety officer assigned to it and is patrol by the Military Police.

Security Considerations in the Maintenance of Facilities

Security measures used in the maintenance of the facility which include, but not limited to, areas such as lighting and other hazards, involve consultation with the building lessor and Maryville administration.

This facility has individual hours, and the hours may vary at different times of the year based on the academic class schedule. Access to some of the building is controlled by Scott Air Force Base Administration.

Students and employees are asked to be alert and to not circumvent practices and procedures that are meant to preserve their safety and that of others:

- Do not prop doors open or allow strangers into campus buildings that have been secured
- Do not lend keys or access cards to non-students and do not leave them unattended
- Do not give access codes to anyone who does not belong to the campus community

Educational Programs Related to Security Awareness and Prevention of Criminal Activity

The University seeks to enhance the security of its campus and the members of the campus community by periodically presenting educational programs to inform students and employees about campus security procedures and practices, to encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others and to inform them about the prevention of crimes. These programs are discussed below.

During orientation in August and throughout the month of September during “Campus Safety Month”, students are informed about a variety of services offered by the public safety department. Crime prevention programs and sexual assault prevention programs are offered on a continual basis. Periodically, during the academic year, the public safety department, in cooperation with other university organizations and departments, present crime prevention awareness sessions on sexual assault, stalking, domestic and dating violence, alcohol abuse, date rape drugs, theft prevention, etc.

When a new employee is hired, the Office of Human Resources provides information on how to obtain a copy of the Annual Security Report. This report contains information pertaining to campus security procedures, practices and crime prevention programs. All employees are encouraged to participate in programs offered by the public safety department.

All members of the community are continually reminded they must be responsible for their own security and the security of others. This message is reinforced through security awareness programs offered by the department, the annual disclosure form, in the "timely warnings" distributed to the campus community, and with the department motto "It takes all of us working together to keep the campus safe".

The programs described above are available to all Maryville community members from all campuses.

Monitoring Off Campus Locations of Recognized Student Organizations

The University does not have any officially recognized student organizations with off campus locations and therefore does not monitor or record criminal conduct occurring at such locations.

Disclosure of the Outcome of a Crime of Violence or Non-Forcible Sex Offense

Upon written request, the University will disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in section 16 of title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of the paragraph.

The previous paragraph does not apply to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking because under the Violence Against Women Act both the accused and accuser in these cases are given the results without the need to make a written request.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

The use, sale, delivery, possession, and consumption of alcoholic beverages in or on any property owned or controlled by the University are strictly prohibited except as specifically stated in University policy. The Public Safety Department enforces all University policies, including those related to alcoholic beverages. City, state, and federal laws pertaining to the illegal use of alcoholic beverages, particularly the laws that prohibit the sale to or possession of alcoholic beverages by person(s) under the age of 21 and State underage drinking laws, fall under the jurisdiction of Town & Country Police or other MO police agencies. The University assists these agencies in enforcing such laws.

It is a violation of University policy to possess alcohol in any public area of campus even if the person in possession is of legal age. Any groups or persons violating the University's alcohol/substance policies or applicable laws may be subject to arrest by local law enforcement and/or disciplinary sanctions by the University.

Maryville University is committed to promoting the health and safety of its campus community through a program of alcohol education and the implementation of relevant policies. The University enforces compliance with local and state alcoholic beverage laws on campus and at University-sponsored activities. The University affirms its adherence to the following principles:

- The misuse and/or abuse of alcoholic beverages and related behavior, such as disorderly conduct, illness due to excessive consumption of alcohol, and destruction of property, pose a danger to individual members of the University community and to the community at large.
- The promotion of alcoholic beverage consumption as the primary focus of on- and off-campus activities is inappropriate because it invites members of the University community to violate University regulations and Illinois State law.
- Consumption of alcoholic beverages should only be by persons of legal age and by personal choice.
- Those who choose to consume alcoholic beverages should do so responsibly and in moderation.
- Consumption of alcoholic beverages should not be the main focus of an event or the only means of refreshment at an event.
- The responsibility for proper consumption of alcoholic beverages and for compliance with laws of Missouri rests with each individual member of the University community.

Maryville University also enforces federal and state drug laws through its policies. The possession, sale, manufacture, use, or distribution of illegal drugs is prohibited on campus or as any part of the University's activities. Violations of federal, state, or local laws related to illegal drugs fall within the jurisdiction of law enforcement agencies and the University will assist such agencies as necessary. Individuals who violate University policies or federal and state laws regarding illegal drugs will be subject to disciplinary action and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

Federal Drug Laws

Denial of Federal Benefits (21 U.S.C. 862) A federal drug conviction may result in the loss of federal benefits, including school loans, grants, scholarships, contracts, and licenses. Federal drug trafficking convictions may result in denial of federal benefits for up to five years for a first conviction. Federal drug convictions for possession may result in denial of federal benefits for up to one year for a first conviction and up to five years for subsequent convictions.

Forfeiture of Personal Property and Real Estate (21 U.S.C. 853) Any person convicted of a federal drug offense punishable by more than one year in prison shall forfeit to the United States any personal or real property related to the violation, including houses, cars, and other personal belongings. A warrant of seizure is issued and property is seized at the time an individual is arrested on charges that may result in forfeiture.

Federal Drug Trafficking Penalties (21 U.S.C. 841) Penalties for federal drug trafficking convictions vary according to the quantity of the controlled substance involved in the transaction. Penalties for subsequent convictions are twice as severe.

If death or serious bodily injury results from the use of a controlled substance which has been illegally distributed, the person convicted on federal charges of distributing the substance faces the possibility of a life sentence and fines ranging up to $10 million.

Persons convicted on federal charges of drug trafficking within 1,000 feet of a university (21 U.S.C. 860) face penalties of prison terms and fines which are twice as high as the regular penalties for the offense, with a mandatory prison sentence of at least one year.

Federal Drug Possession Penalties (21 U.S.C. 844) Persons convicted on federal charges of possessing any controlled substance face penalties of up to one year in prison and a mandatory fine of no less than $1,000. Second convictions are punishable by not less than 15 days but not more than two years in prison and a minimum fine of $2,500. Subsequent convictions are punishable by not less than 90 days but not more than three years in prison and a minimum fine of $5,000.

Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Program

The University has a drug and alcohol abuse and prevention program, which includes an annual notification to students and employees regarding certain drug/alcohol-related information (e.g., health risks and legal sanctions for violations of applicable laws), and conducts a biennial review of this program to evaluate its effectiveness and assess whether sanctions are being consistently enforced. Policies, Procedures, and Programs Related to Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking

Consistent with applicable laws, the University prohibits dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Toward that end, Maryville University issues this statement of policy to inform the campus community of our programs to address domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as well as the procedures for institutional disciplinary action in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, which will be followed regardless of whether the incident occurs on or off campus when it is reported to a University official.

The University’s policy used to address complaints of this nature, as well as the procedures for filing, investigating and resolving complaints, may be found at:

- Sexual Harassment Policy: <https://www.maryville.edu/policies/sexual-harassment-policy/>

The following sections of this report discuss the University’s educational programs to promote the awareness of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking; provides information concerning procedures students and employees should follow and the services available in the event they do become a victim of one of these offenses; and advises students and employees of the disciplinary procedures that will be followed after an allegation that one of these offenses has occurred.

Primary Prevention and Awareness Program

The University conducts a Primary Prevention and Awareness Program (PPAP) for all incoming students and new employees. The PPAP advises campus community members that the University prohibits the offenses of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. They are also informed of the topics discussed below, including relevant definitions, risk reduction, and bystander intervention.

Consent (as it relates to sexual activity) (720 Ill. Comp. Stat. §5/11-1.70)	"Consent" means a freely given agreement to the act of sexual penetration or sexual conduct in question. Lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission by the victim resulting from the use of force or threat of force by the accused shall not constitute consent. The manner of dress of the victim at the time of the offense shall not constitute consent. A person who initially consents to sexual penetration or sexual conduct is not deemed to have consented to any sexual penetration or sexual conduct that occurs after he or she withdraws consent during the course of that sexual penetration or sexual conduct.

University Definition of Consent

The University uses the following definition of consent in its Sexual Harassment Policy for the purpose of determining whether sexual violence (including sexual assault) has occurred:

The expectations of the University Community regarding sexual harassment (including sexual violence/assault) can be summarized as follows: In order for individuals to engage in sexual activity of any type with each other, there must be clear, knowing, and voluntary consent prior to and during sexual activity. Consent requires an affirmative act or statement by each participant. Consent is not passive. Silence—without actions demonstrating permission—cannot be assumed to show consent. Anything but a clear, knowing and voluntary consent to any sexual activity is equivalent to a “no”.

Consent to some form of sexual activity cannot be automatically taken as consent to any other form of sexual activity.

Previous relationships or prior consent do not imply consent to future sexual acts.

If coercion, intimidation, threats, and/or physical force are used, there is no consent.

If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired such that the person cannot understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent.

In order to give effective consent, a person must be of legal age. In the State of Missouri, the legal age of consent is 14. (If you are over 18 but fewer than 21, the age of consent is 14. If you are over 21, you may not have sexual intercourse with anyone under 17.) Sexual acts with someone less than 14 are a violation of state law and of this policy.

How to Be an Active Bystander

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are “individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it.”¹ We want to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list² of some ways to be an active bystander. Further information regarding bystander intervention may be found. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.

1. Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
2. Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
3. Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.
4. Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
5. Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance.

Risk Reduction

With no intent to victim blame and recognizing that only abusers are responsible for their abuse, the following are some strategies to reduce one’s risk of sexual assault or harassment (taken from Rape, Abuse, & Incest National Network, www.rainn.org)

1. Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way to get out of a bad situation.
2. Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.
3. Walk with purpose. Even if you don’t know where you are going, act like you do.
4. Trust your instincts. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it probably isn’t the best place to be.
5. Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.
6. Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cab money.
7. Don't allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don’t trust or someone you don’t know.

² Bystander intervention strategies adapted from Stanford University’s Office of Sexual Assault & Relationship Abuse

8. Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
9. When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way out of a bad situation.
10. Trust your instincts. If you feel unsafe in any situation, go with your gut. If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.).
11. Don't leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you've left your drink alone, just get a new one.
12. Don't accept drinks from people you don't know or trust. If you choose to accept a drink, go with the person to the bar to order it, watch it being poured, and carry it yourself. At parties, don't drink from the punch bowls or other large, common open containers.
13. Watch out for your friends, and vice versa. If a friend seems out of it, is way too intoxicated for the amount of alcohol they've had, or is acting out of character, get him or her to a safe place immediately.
14. If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.). Be explicit with doctors so they can give you the correct tests (you will need a urine test and possibly others).
15. If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation here are some things that you can try:
 - a. Remember that being in this situation is not your fault. You did not do anything wrong, it is the person who is making you uncomfortable that is to blame.
 - b. Be true to yourself. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. "I don't want to" is always a good enough reason. Do what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.
 - c. Have a code word with your friends or family so that if you don't feel comfortable you can call them and communicate your discomfort without the person you are with knowing. Your friends or family can then come to get you or make up an excuse for you to leave.
 - d. Lie. If you don't want to hurt the person's feelings it is better to lie and make up a reason to leave than to stay and be uncomfortable, scared, or worse. Some excuses you could use are: needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, having somewhere else that you need to be, etc.
16. Try to think of an escape route. How would you try to get out of the room? Where are the doors? Windows? Are there people around who might be able to help you? Is there an emergency phone nearby?
17. If you and/or the other person have been drinking, you can say that you would rather wait until you both have your full judgment before doing anything you may regret later.

The following sections of this report discuss the University's educational programs to promote the awareness of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking; provides information concerning procedures students and employees should follow and the services available in the event they do become a victim of one of these offenses; and advises students and employees of the disciplinary procedures that will be followed after an allegation that one of these offenses has occurred.

Maryville University engages in comprehensive, intentional, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to end dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking that:

- A. Are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research, or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome; and
- B. Consider environmental risk and protective factors as they occur on the individual, relationship, institutional, community and societal levels.

Educational programming consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students³ and new employees and ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns for students. This includes educational postings, programs completed by different Departments on campus, digital media, and other resources distributed.

Other Information Covered by the PPAP

The PPAP also provides information on possible sanctions and protective measures that may be imposed following a determination that an offense of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred, an explanation of the disciplinary procedures that will be followed when one of these offenses is alleged, the rights of the parties in such a proceeding, available resources, and other pertinent information. Much of this information is set forth in the upcoming sections of this security report.

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaign:

The University also conducts an Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaign (OPAC) aimed at all students and employees. This campaign covers the same material as provided in the PPAP, but is intended to increase the understanding of students and employees on these topics and to improve their skills for addressing the offenses of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.

PPAP and OPAC Programming Methods:

The PPAP and OPAC are carried out in a variety of ways, using a range of strategies, and, as appropriate, targeting specific audiences throughout the institution. Some of these programs may involve the distribution of educational materials, inviting guest speakers to campus, providing programs to the community, programs during orientation, addressing topics during academic classes (i.e. First Year Experience), etc. In addition, the university offers several programs dealing with issues of sexual assault prevention. During orientation, the orientation leaders speak to incoming students about the issues of sexual assault, alcohol abuse, domestic violence, etc. In addition, health & wellness and personal counseling provide several programs throughout the year that deal with sexual assault prevention. The public safety department offers R.A.D. Defense, which is a 12- hour course that discusses issues of sexual assault, acquaintance rape, and other forcible and non-forcible sex offenses and how not to become a victim of these crimes. Several hours are spent teaching women how to be safe and learning basic self-defense techniques to assist them should they be attacked. For more information on programs offered through public safety, contact the Public Safety Department at 314.529.9500.

Health & Wellness, Personal Counseling, Public Safety, and several student groups provide several programs throughout the year that deal with domestic and other types of interpersonal violence, personal safety, alcohol and drug abuse, etc. They also distribute a variety of brochures about the harmful effects of drugs, alcohol, and tobacco and promote the Missouri Department of Highway Safety– C.H.E.E.R.S. program that promotes free soda for designated drivers at local bars and restaurants.

These are some of the following alcohol, drug, and sexual assault programs presented by various departments during the calendar year 2017 on our Main campus that Lake St. Louis Students have access to. Topics ranged from alcohol and drug issues, sexual health, smoking, wellness, nutrition, exercise, stress relief, self-care tips, resources in the area, HPV vaccine information, etc.

1. Violence Awareness Month - including Alcohol & Drug Education: Pamphlets, display table, programs and collaborations with other groups on campus
2. Alcohol Awareness Week - A variety of activities including table information and a trivia night.
3. E-CHUG - online, alcohol awareness learning tool which is anonymous, personalized and required by athletics.
4. Nutrition Counseling – fall and spring have the opportunity to sponsor a dietetic intern from a local IHE to provide information about alcohol calories & nutritional value.
5. Stress Relief – midterm and finals – information available about the negative effects of alcohol and other drugs – including OTC Rx and its potential to hinder learning.
6. Great Sex Programs – held monthly. Food–Fun–Topics: relationships, sexual health, safety, alcohol and drug impact, personal exploration of feelings and thoughts about self and others.
7. Missouri College Health Behavioral Survey was conducted with our undergraduate students to assess their alcohol, tobacco and drug use and the safeguards and consequences of use. Comparison is available with other state of Missouri IHE and 6 other private campuses.
8. Social Norming campaign – dispelling myths about whether or not students want other students to intervene when in trouble– This is mostly done during our BEST DAY EVER promotion during the fall and spring.
9. Health Educators promoting Responsible Options (Hero’s) - train specific student groups who influence other students encouraging the promotion of health and wellness topics throughout the year including resources.
10. Step Up - Bystander training which encourages students to help one another in a variety of situations to reduce harm.
11. Toilet Papers – Bi-monthly publication posted in bathroom stalls in residence halls and at various other locations that provide brief excerpts on issues of general health, nutrition, alcohol, other drugs and safety
12. LIVEengaged Grant CHOICES – Offered grant money to student groups who would like to conduct a learning experience about alcohol, tobacco or other drug focus.
13. Recovery Group - A program sponsored by Personal Counseling that deals with alcoholism support and education. Expanding efforts to engage students in recovery to improve success at Maryville.
14. Meditation - on-going mediation for students, staff and faculty to improve wellbeing and reduce stress.
15. New Student Orientation – Division for Student Success offered programming during orientation that addressed issues facing college students and resources available to support them. Topics focused on alcohol use/abuse, sexual assault, eating disorders, and long distance relationships.

16. Campus Safety Month - Public Safety collaborated with other departments to provide a variety of crime prevention and safety programs throughout the entire month of September.
17. Ask, Listen, Refer – suicide prevention tool used by faculty/staff and students to help people know how to help someone they suspect is suicidal
18. Circle of 6 Safety App - during promotions with Center for Civic Engagement and Democracy and Men stepping up to prevent domestic/relationship violence
19. Safe Spring break and Safe winter break promotions - about general safety during spring break on Maryville HEROS You Tube.
20. Week of Wellness – sexual safety, drunk driving safety, travel safety, etc.

Procedures to Follow if You are a Victim of Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking:

If you are a victim of a sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, go to a safe place and call 911 or the Department of Public Safety at 314-529-9500. At the earliest opportunity, you should also contact the University’s Title IX Coordinator at 314-529-9981 or by visiting the Donius University Center, Suite 100.

Victims will be notified in writing of the procedures to follow, including:

- To whom and how the alleged offense should be reported (contact the Title IX Coordinator or refer to the other resources listed in this report).
- The importance of preserving evidence that may be necessary to prove the offense in a criminal proceeding or disciplinary action or to obtain a protective order.
- The victim’s options regarding notification to law enforcement, which are: (a) the option to notify either on-campus or local police; (b) the option to be assisted by campus security authorities in notifying law enforcement if the victim so chooses (the institution is obligated to comply with such a request if it is made); and (c) the option to decline to notify such authorities.
- Where applicable, the rights of victims and the institution’s responsibilities regarding orders of protection, no-contact orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court.

If a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking is reported to the University, below are the procedures that the University will follow:

Preservation of Evidence & Forensic Examinations

Victims of physical assault are advised to not remove clothing items worn during or following an assault, as they frequently contain valuable fiber, hair, and fluid evidence. Don't bathe or wash, or otherwise clean the environment in which the assault occurred. You can obtain a forensic examination at St. Elizabeth's Hospital 1, St Elizabeth's Blvd, O'Fallon, IL 62269 (618) 234-2120.

Completing a forensic examination does not require you to file a police report, but having a forensic examination will help preserve evidence in case you decide at a later date to file a police report.

Victims are also advised to retain evidence in electronic formats (e.g., text messages, emails, photos, social media posts, screenshots, etc.). Such evidence is valuable in all situations, and it may be the only type of evidence available in instances of stalking.

Security/Law Enforcement & How to Make a Police Report

- Scott Air Force Base Police Department 201 W Winters St, Scott AFB, IL 62225 (618) 256-2223

- To make a police report, a victim should contact the local police agency listed above either by phone or in-person. The victim should provide as much information as possible, including name, address, and when and what occurred, to the best of the victim's ability.

Information about Legal Protection Orders

- In Illinois, there are three different kinds of protection and no contact orders available to victims: a Domestic Violence Order of Protection, a Sexual Assault Civil No Contact Order, and a Stalking No Contact Order. Information about these orders may be found on the Illinois Attorney General's website at: <http://illinoisattorneygeneral.gov/women/OrdersofProtectionPoster.pdf>. The College's Title IX Coordinator can also provide more information and assistance with this process if desired.
- A Domestic Violence Order of Protection is governed by the Illinois Domestic Violence Act and is appropriate for victims a restraining order against a person with whom the victim has a relationship. Illinois law also provides protection in the form of Sexual Assault Civil No Contact Order and Stalking No Contact Orders. A Sexual Assault Civil No Contact Order may be granted for any person who is a victim of nonconsensual sexual conduct. A Stalking No Contact Order provides protection for any victim of a course of conduct that causes the victim to fear for his or her safety or the safety of another person, or to suffer emotional distress. Stalking No Contact Orders provide relief when such relief is not available to the victim through the Illinois Domestic Violence Act or through a Sexual Assault Civil No Contact Order.
- A protection order may be obtained by filing a petition with the court for an order of protection. To obtain an order of protection, victims may go to their local circuit court clerk's office and get papers to seek an order of protection. A victim should be prepared to present documentation (including a police report number if an arrest was made) and/or other forms of evidence when filing for an order of protection. The judge will then review the petition and enter a temporary order of protection, if the judge determines there is enough evidence to support the order.
- To obtain an Order of Protection: An order of protection should be filed in the local circuit court. When filing in St. Clair county, an order of protection can be applied for Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in Courtroom 305 of the St. Clair County Courthouse, with hearings on those applications in the afternoon of the same day. The address is: 10 Public Sq, Belleville, IL 62220. Personnel from the Violence Prevention Center and Land of Lincoln Legal Assistance Foundation are present in that courtroom to assist people in filling out the necessary paperwork. More information is available at: <http://www.sao.co.st-clair.il.us/victim/domestic/Pages/default.aspx>.
- Courts may issue three types of orders of protection: emergency, interim, and plenary orders. Emergency orders may last for 14 to 21 days, and interim orders up to 30. While these orders are temporary, plenary orders may be for longer lengths of time (up to 2 years). The judge can grant a variety of remedies and protections, which range from prohibiting further contact, protecting property and pets, ordering the offender to transfer to another school, or other injunctive relief that is necessary to protect the victim. Violating a Domestic Violence Order of Protection, a Sexual Assault Civil No Contact Order, or a Stalking No Contact Order is a Class A misdemeanor. A second violation can be a felony.

- Any student or employee who has a restraining order, order of protection, no contact order or any other such order issued by a criminal, civil or tribal court against another individual (whether or not that individual is also a student or employee of the University) is highly encouraged to notify the Title IX Coordinator of the threat and to provide a copy of the restraining order so that it is kept on file. The Title IX Coordinator, in cooperation with other campus officials, will ensure that all reasonable and legal steps are taken to enforce the order on campus, if necessary.
 - If such an order is provided, a complainant may then meet with public safety to develop a Safety Action Plan, which is a plan for public safety and the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to: escorts, special parking arrangements, providing a temporary cellphone, changing classroom location or allowing a student to complete assignments from home, etc.) The university may issue an institutional “No Contact” directive, if deemed appropriate, or at the request of the victim or accused student.
- “No Trespass” Warnings: If information is available leading to a reasonable conclusion that an individual is likely to cause harm to any member of the campus community, the University may issue a No Trespass Warning. A person found to be in violation of a No Trespass Warning may be arrested and criminally charged.

Available Victim Services:

Victims will be provided written notification about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available to them, both within the University and in the surrounding community. Those services include:

University Resources

- Health & Wellness Center - Provides students with health education, emergency care and treatment of minor illness or injury, referrals and resources for confidential care. University Library 610 Maryville University Dr. 314-529-9520
- Office of Personal Counseling - Personal Counseling and referral to off-campus resources University Library 610 Maryville University Dr. 314-529-9520
- After Hours Counseling Support Line 314-529-9556.
- Student Financial Aid – Sometimes a victim of a crime may feel the need to take a leave of absence from school. If a student is considering a leave of absence based on the circumstances of a complaint, he/she should understand there may be financial aid implications in taking such leave. This should be discussed with financial aid personnel, and the Title IX Coordinator can assist in facilitating this conversation if desired. The University's financial aid website can be found at:

Accommodations and Protective Measures:

The University will provide written notification to victims about options for, and available assistance in, changing academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures. If victims request these accommodations or protective measures and they are reasonably available the University is obligated to provide them, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus security or local law enforcement. The written notification will include information regarding the accommodation options, available assistance in requesting accommodations, and how to request accommodations and protective measures (i.e., the notification will include the name and contact information for the individual or office that should be contacted to request the accommodations).

Examples of options for a potential change to the academic situation may include transfer to a different section of a class or withdraw and take a class at another time if there is no option for moving to a different section. Potential changes to living situations may include moving to a different room or residence hall. Possible changes to work situations may include changing working hours. Possible changes in transportation may include having the student or employee park in a different location, assisting the student or employee with a safety escort, etc.

Requests of this nature should be made to the Title IX Coordinator at 314-529-6721 or by visiting the Donius University Center, Suite 111 (Deputy Title IX coordinator/Dean of Students, and the Title IX Coordinator is responsible for deciding what if any, accommodations or protective measures will be implemented. When determining the reasonableness of such a request, the Title IX Coordinator may consider, among other factors, the following:

- The specific need expressed by the complainant.
- The age of the students involved.
- The severity or pervasiveness of the allegations
- Any continuing effects on the complainant
- Whether the complainant and alleged perpetrator share the same residence hall, dining hall, class, transportation or job location. Whether other judicial measures have been taken to protect the complainant (e.g., civil protection orders).

The University will maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided a victim to the extent that maintaining confidentiality would not impair the University's ability to provide them. However, there may be times when certain information must be disclosed to a third party in order to implement the accommodation or protective measure. Such decisions will be made by the Title IX Coordinator considering the surrounding circumstances, and disclosures of this nature will be limited so that only the information necessary to implement the accommodation or protective measure is provided. In the event it is necessary to disclose information about a victim in order to provide an accommodation or protective order, the University will inform the victim of that necessity prior to the disclosure, including which information will be shared, with whom it will be shared and why.

Procedures for Disciplinary Action:

Allegations of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking will be processed through the University's Sexual Harassment Policy (includes Sexual Violence/Assault) and the related complaint resolution procedures. The procedures are utilized whenever or wherever a complaint is made, regardless of the status of the complainant and the respondent.

Whether or not criminal charges are filed, the University or a person may file a complaint under the “Sexual Harassment Policy (includes Sexual Violence/Assault)” alleging that a student or employee violated the University’s prohibition against sexual harassment.. Maryville University uses this policy to investigate and adjudicate allegations of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking. Reports of all domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking made to Public Safety will automatically be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation regardless if the complainant chooses to pursue criminal charges.

The complaint resolution procedures are invoked once a report is made to one of the following individuals or with a University Official with authority to address sexual harassment.

Title IX Procedures

Initial Assessment

All reports regarding domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking undergo an initial assessment by the Title IX Coordinator based on a limited threshold review, as to whether the report alleges conduct that may be addressed through the Sexual Harassment Policy (Title IX Procedures) or the need for supportive measures for applicable parties. If the report does not meet those jurisdictional requirements, the allegations may be investigated under the Student Code of Conduct, Policy against Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation, or other applicable University policy. The Title IX Coordinator has oversight of all procedures as outlined in the Sexual Harassment Policy. Materials used to train Title IX Coordinators, investigators, and decision makers are available at <https://www.maryville.edu/oiec/titleix/>.

Formal Investigation and Hearing Procedures:

Once a formal complaint is made, the Title IX Coordinator will provide notice to the parties of the investigation, including a description of and written copy of the policy and procedures to be utilized, the identities of the parties, the conduct at issue, the date and location of the alleged incident, and the rights of the complainant(s) and respondent(s) involved in the investigations.

During the investigation, the complainant and respondent will each have an equal opportunity to describe the situation and present witnesses, including both fact and expert witnesses, and other supporting evidence. The investigator(s) will review the statements and evidence presented and may, depending on the circumstances, interview others with relevant knowledge, review documentary materials, and take any other appropriate action to gather and consider information relevant to the complaint. Prior to the conclusion of the investigation, both parties along with their designated advisor(s) will be provided an opportunity to review the evidence gathered during the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the formal complaint.

Upon completion of the investigation, both parties and their designated advisor(s) will be given a copy of an investigation report and a live hearing will be conducted to make a determination as to whether any allegations in the complaint were found to be substantiated by a preponderance of the evidence. During the hearing, each party's advisor will be permitted to ask the other party and any witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions including those bearing on credibility. The decision maker(s) will issue a written determination of responsibility, a statement of any disciplinary sanctions and whether any remedies will be provided to the complainant, and a description of the procedures and permissible grounds for appeal. With variations in the totality of the circumstances surrounding each hearing the length of the adjudication process may vary. However, the University strives to simultaneously issue to the parties, the hearing officer's written determination within fourteen (14) days after the conclusion of the hearing. three (3).

Appeals

Both parties have an equal opportunity to appeal the determination of the hearing officer or the dismissal of a formal complaint. Appeals must be made on one or more of the following grounds. No other grounds for appeal are permitted.

- A procedural irregularity affected the outcome;
- There is new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination or dismissal was made, that could have affected the outcome;
- The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, hearing officer, or administrative officer, as the case may be, had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally, or against the individual Complainant or Respondent, that affected the outcome.

Either party has the right to file a written appeal with the appeal officer within seven (7) days of being notified of the outcome of the investigation, or if the other party appeals, within three (3) days of the other party appealing, whichever is later. The non-appealing party will be notified of the appeal and permitted to submit a written statement in response. The appeals officer will resolve the appeal within twenty-one (21) days of receiving and may take any and all actions that he/she determines to be in the interest of a fair and just decision.

Student Conduct Procedures

The Student Conduct Process that outlines disciplinary procedures under all applicable policies can be found in the Grievances by and against students Policy:

Policy Against Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation and Complaint Resolution Procedures

Maryville's Policy Against Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation and Complaint Resolution Procedures can be located at <https://www.maryville.edu/policies/university-policy-against-harassment-discrimination/>.

This policy addresses all other forms of sex-based discrimination, including sex-based harassment that does not rise to the level of Sexual Harassment as defined in the Maryville Sexual Harassment Policy. Complaints of sexual violence and other forms of sexual misconduct that fall outside the scope of the Sexual Harassment Policy will be address through this Policy as a form of sex discrimination. This Policy also addresses all allegations of prohibited harassment and discrimination based on protected statuses.

When a report of alleged discrimination, harassment, discriminatory harassment, or retaliation is received, the report will be referred to the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC). Following the receipt of the report, OIEC will conduct an initial assessment of the allegations which may include giving the respondent(s) reasonable notice of a filed complaint and the opportunity to respond to the complaint. The complainant and respondent may request to resolve the complaint informally. OIEC reserves the right to conduct a formal investigation which includes gathering statements, documents, and other relevant evidence from the complainant, respondents, witnesses, and other identified individuals who have information concerning the allegations in the complaint.

Investigations will be handled discreetly, with information shared only with those persons who need to know the information in order for there to be a full and fair investigation. Interim measures during the pendency of the investigation may be implemented to protect and separate the parties.

Upon the completion of an investigation a written report will be shared with the Vice President for Student Life summarizing the results of the investigation. The VP for Student Life will determine, using a preponderance of the evidence, whether or not a violation of the Policy Against Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation occurred. If a violation is deemed to have occurred the appropriate sanctions will issued in a final outcome letter to address, stop and prevent recurrences of the misconduct. If a determination is made that no violation occurred then the final outcome letter will be issued with a decision to dismiss the case. Both the complainant and the respondent may appeal the determination of a complaint only on the following grounds:

- (1) there is a substantial likelihood that newly discovered information, not available at the time evidence was presented to the investigator, would result in a different decision;
- (2) there was a procedural error significant enough to call the outcome of the investigation into question;
- (3) there was a clear error in factual findings;
- (4) there was bias or prejudice on the part of the investigator or the Vice President for Student Life; or
- (5) the punishment or the corrective action imposed is disproportionate to the offense.

Appeals must be submitted to the appropriate appeal officer within 10 days of the determination. The appeal officer will resolve the appeal within a timely and fair manner and communicate this decision in writing to both the complainant and respondent.

Rights of the Parties in an Institutional Title IX Proceeding:

During the process described in the previous section, both the complainant and the respondent are entitled to:

1. A prompt, fair and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result.
 - o A prompt, fair and impartial process is one that is:
 - Completed within reasonably prompt timeframes designated by the institution's policy, including a process that allows for the extension of timeframes for good cause, with written notice to the accuser and the accused of the delay and the reason for the delay.
 - Conducted in a manner that:
 - Is consistent with the institution's policies and transparent to the accuser and the accused.
 - Includes timely notice of meetings at which the accuser or accused, or both, may be present; and - Provides timely access to the accuser, the accused and appropriate officials to any information that will be used during the informal and formal disciplinary meetings and hearings.
 - Conducted by officials who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the accuser or the accused.
2. Proceedings conducted by officials who, at a minimum, receive annual training on the issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking and on how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.
 - o Such training addresses topics such as the definition of sexual harassment; the scope of the University's educational programs and activities; how to conduct investigations, hearings, and appeals and informal resolutions (as applicable); relevant evidence and how it should be used during a proceeding; proper techniques for questioning witnesses; basic procedural rules for conducting a proceeding; and avoiding actual and perceived conflicts of interest.

Maryville University hosted D. Stafford & Associated Title IX investigator training course and the Title IX coordinator along with the Assistant Director of Public Safety completed the training. The University also provides annual Title IX and legal update training annually to the entire faculty & staff on campus through Husch Blackwell. Multiple training programs are available through the Title IX office for student engagement and the community.

3. The same opportunities to review both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence and have others present during any institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the advisor of their choice. The institution may not limit the choice of advisor but may establish limits regarding the extent to which that advisor may participate in the proceeding, as long as those limits apply equally to both parties.
4. Have the outcome determined using the preponderance of the evidence standard.
5. A statement that the respondent is presumed not responsible until a determination of responsibility is made after a hearing.
6. A statement that if, in the course of an investigation, additional allegations about the Complainant or Respondent are identified, that were not included in the notice already provided, an additional notice of allegations to the parties whose identities are known will be provided.
5. Simultaneous, written notification of the results of the proceeding, any procedures for either party to appeal the result, any change to the result, and when the result becomes final. For this purpose, “result” means “any initial, interim and final decision by an official or entity authorized to resolve disciplinary matters” and must include the rationale for reaching the result and any sanctions imposed.

Possible Sanctions or Protective Measures that the University May Impose for Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking Offenses:

Following a final determination in the institution’s disciplinary proceeding that dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed, the institution may impose a sanction depending on the mitigating and aggravating circumstances involved.

The possible sanctions for employees include: written warning; counseling/education; written documentation in personnel file; suspension with pay*; suspension without pay*; reassignment; demotion; and termination of employment.

An employee may be suspended for any length of time as determined appropriate by the Vice President for Finance & Facilities. Following a suspension, the individual will be required to meet with the Director of Human Resources to discuss re-entry and expectations going forward.*

The possible sanctions for students include: formal warning; conduct probation; restriction or loss of privilege; restriction or removal of guest privileges; education; behavioral contract; housing probation; administrative move; removal from housing; administrative hold on University account; restriction on eligibility to represent the University at any official function or in any intercollegiate competition; interim suspension, suspension, or expulsion.

If a suspension is imposed on a student, it may be for part of a semester, a full semester, or an entire academic year. Following a suspension, the student will be required to meet with the Dean of Students to discuss re-entry and expectations going forward.

The University may implement protective measures following the report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and/or stalking. The Title IX Coordinator or their designee will determine whether protective measures should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those protective measures as soon as possible. Examples of protective measures include but are not limited to: no-contact orders; residence hall/apartment relocation; academic adjustments; modifications in work locations, assignments, or schedules; leaves of absence; reassignment to a different supervisor or position; or removal of the respondent from campus. These measures may be applied to one, both, or multiple parties involved. Violations of the Title IX Coordinator's directives and/or protective measures will constitute related violations that may lead to disciplinary action. Protective measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by Maryville University. Sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are criminal acts which also may subject the perpetrator to criminal and civil penalties under federal and state law.

Publicly Available Recordkeeping:

The University will complete any publicly available recordkeeping, including Clery Act reporting and disclosures, without the inclusion of personally identifiable information about victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking who make reports of such to the University to the extent permitted by law. The University does not publish the name of crime victims or other identifiable information regarding victims in the Daily Crime Log or in the annual crime statistics that are disclosed in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. Furthermore, if a Timely Warning Notice is issued based on a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, the name of the victim and other personally identifiable information about the victim will be withheld.

Victims to Receive Written Notification of Rights:

When a student or employee reports to the University that he or she has been a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the University will provide the student or employee a written explanation of his or her rights and options as described in the paragraphs above.

Sex Offender Registration Program:

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 requires institutions of higher education to advise members of the campus community where they can obtain information provided by the state concerning registered sex offenders. It also requires sex offenders to notify the state of each institution of higher education in the state at which they are employed or enrolled or carrying on a vocation. The state is then required to notify the University of any such information it receives. Anyone interested in determining whether such persons are on this campus may do so by contacting the Public Safety Director at 314-529-9564. State registry of sex offender information may be accessed at the following link:

<https://www.mshp.dps.missouri.gov/MSHPWeb/PatrolDivisions/CRID/SOR/SORPage.html>

In addition, the University can make available to the victim a range of protective measures. They include: forbidding the accused from entering the victim's residence hall and from communicating with the victim, other institutional no-contact orders, security/safety escorts, modifications to academic requirements or class schedules, changes in working situations, etc.

Sex Offender Registration Program:

Timely Warnings and Emergency Response

Timely Warnings

In the event of criminal activity occurring on or off campus that in the judgment of the Director of Public Safety and Vice President of Integrated Marketing & Communications constitutes a serious or continuing threat to members of the campus community, a campus-wide "timely warning" will be issued. Examples of such situations may include a sexual assault or a series of motor vehicle thefts in the area that merit a warning because they present a continuing threat to the campus community. Warnings will be communicated to students and employees via one or more of the methods discussed later in this section. Updates to the warnings will be provided as appropriate.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should immediately report the circumstances to:

- Department of Public Safety, 314-529-9500
- Director of Public Safety, 314-529-9564
- Dean of Students, 314-529-9476
- Vice President of Integrated Marketing & Communications, 314-529-9340

The University has communicated with local law enforcement asking them to notify the University if it receives reports or information warranting a timely warning.

Emergency Response

The University has an emergency management plan designed to ensure there is a timely and effective response in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation occurring on campus involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of members of the campus community. Such situations include, but are not limited to: tornadoes, bomb threats, chemical spills, disease outbreaks, fires, active shooters, etc. The University has communicated with local police requesting their cooperation in informing the University about situations reported to them that may warrant an emergency response.

Students, staff and visitors are encouraged to notify the Department of Public Safety at 314-529-9500 of any emergency or potentially dangerous situation.

Once the emergency is confirmed and based on its nature, the Director of Public Safety will consult with other appropriate University officials to determine the appropriate segment or segments of the University community to be notified. The Director will, in collaboration with other appropriate personnel, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Depending on the segments of the campus the notification will target, the content of the notification may differ. When appropriate, the content of the notification will be determined in consultation with local authorities. Also, as appropriate, the notification will give guidance as to whether its recipients should shelter in place or evacuate their location.

Timely Warning Notices will be distributed as soon as pertinent information is available, in a manner that withholds the names of victims as confidential, and with the goal of aiding in the prevention of similar occurrences.

Timely Warning Notices are typically written and distributed by the Director of Public Safety, along with the Vice President of Integrated Marketing & Communications or their designee.

Timely Warning Notices will be issued to the campus community via email blast to all currently enrolled students or active faculty, and staff of MU assigned email accounts. Timely warnings may also be issued using some or all of the following methods of communication: text messages or emails sent through the University's SAINTS ALERT system.

The institution is not required to issue a Timely Warning with respect to crimes reported to a professional counselor.

Updates to the warnings will be provided as appropriate.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should immediately report the circumstances to one of the following contacts:

- Department of Public Safety, 314-529-9500
- Director of Public Safety, 314-529-9564
- Dean of Students, 314-529-9476

The University has communicated with local law enforcement asking them to notify the University if it receives reports or information warranting a timely warning.

The Department of Public Safety will access available sources of information from campus administrative staff and local authorities to confirm the existence of the danger and will be responsible for initiating the institution's response and for marshaling the appropriate local emergency response authorities for assistance. Depending on the nature of the emergency, other University departments may be involved in the confirmation process.

In the event of criminal activity occurring on campus that in the judgment of the Director of Public Safety and Vice President of Integrated Marketing & Communications constitutes a serious or continuing threat to members of the campus community, a campus-wide "timely warning" will be issued. Examples of such situations may include a sexual assault or a series of motor vehicle thefts in the area that merit a warning because they present a continuing threat to the campus community. Timely Warnings are typically issued for the following Uniform Crime Reporting Program (UCR)/National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) crime classifications:

1. Murder/Non-Negligent Manslaughter
2. Aggravated Assault (cases involving assaults among known parties, such as two roommates fighting which results in an aggravated injury, will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis to determine if the individual is believed to be an ongoing threat to the larger MU community)
3. Robbery involving force or violence (cases including pick pocketing and purse snatching will typically not result in the issuance of a Timely Warning Notice, but will be assessed on a case-by-case basis)
4. Sexual Assault (considered on a case-by-case basis depending on the facts of the case, when and where the incident occurred, when it was reported, and the amount information known by the Director of Public Safety, or designee). In cases involving sexual assault, they are often reported long after the incident occurred, thus there is no ability to distribute a "timely" warning notice to the community. All cases of sexual assault, including stranger and non-stranger/acquaintance cases, will be assessed for potential issuance of a Timely Warning Notice.
5. Major incidents of Arson

6. Other Clery crimes as determined necessary by the Director of Public Safety, or his or her designee in his or her absence.

Students, staff and visitors are encouraged to notify the Department of Public Safety at 314-529-9500 of any emergency or potentially dangerous situation.

At the direction of the Director of Public Safety, the University’s Vice President for Integrated Marketing and Communications will notify local law enforcement of the emergency if they are not already aware of it and local media outlets in order that the larger community outside the campus will be aware of the emergency. The larger community, including parents, neighbors and other interested persons can obtain information about an emergency on campus via the University webpage (www.maryville.edu) or the local or national media.

At the direction of the University’s Director of Public Safety, local law enforcement will be notified of the emergency if they are not already aware of it and local media outlets in order that the larger community outside the campus will be aware of the emergency.

Methods for Issuing Timely Warnings and Emergency Notifications

The method(s) listed below may be utilized when the University issues a timely warning or emergency notification to the campus community.

Method	Sign Up Instructions
Saints Alert (Text, email, phone message, social media, and digital signage)	All Faculty/Staff/ & Students are auto enrolled, https://www.maryville.edu/publicsafety/saints-alert/ .
Blast Email	These emails will be sent to all current, student, faculty, and staff Maryville email accounts
Website	www.maryville.edu

Testing & Documentation

Maryville University will annually test its emergency response and evacuation procedures. Throughout the year the critical incident management team will meet and train on the University’s response to a critical incident through a variety of exercises including a tabletop, functional, or live exercise. These tests may be announced or unannounced depending on the type of exercise. Community members are encouraged to review the University’s emergency response plan and evacuation procedures located on the portal under “Public Safety”. If you wish a hard copy of the emergency flip chart, please contact the Public Safety department at 314.529.9500.

The Director of Public Safety maintains a record of these tests and training exercises, including a description of the exercise, the dates and times they were held and an indication of whether they were announced or unannounced. In connection with at least one such test, the University will distribute to its students and employees information to remind them of the University's emergency response and evacuation procedures.
